DOUBLE LYNCHING LIKELY.

A dispatch from Bainbridge, Ga., says: A sensation like the "Sam" case is stirring Decatur county. A double lynching is likely to follow as the result of crimes committed upon J. E. Ogletree and his wife Thursday night at their home at the little station of Safford, on the Plant Railroad system, a few miles from Bainbridge.

About eight o'clock two negroes entered the store of Mr. Ogletree, which adjoins the depot, and made a few small purchases. When the sales were completed Mr. Ogletree asked for his money. One of the negroes pointed a pistol at his head and said:

"I owe you nothing. We are robbers and want your money."

Ogletree emptied his pockets. Then the two negroes ordered him to march upstairs, where Mrs. Ogletree was, and they ordered her to give up what money she had. She gave them $1.

While one of the brutes held a pistol to Ogletree's head the other assaulted Mrs. Ogletree. Then the second negro committed the same deed.

About this time a train was heard coming to the station and the negroes fled in the direction of the Chatahochee river. When Ogletree managed to bring himself to a realization of what had happened he took his wife and boarded a train for Bainbridge.

Sheriff Patterson as informed of the crime and took action. Several possees were sworn in and with dogs started in several directions to find some clew to the negroes. Everybody in the vicinity stopped work and assisted the posse in the search. If the blacks are caught their quick death is a certainty.

Mrs. Ogletree is a sister of Wm. Buchanan, county treasurer. She is a member of a well known family.

Governor Candler was advised shortly after noon of the crime at Safford, Sheriff Patterson sending him the following telegram:

Last night two negroes assaulted Mrs. Ogletree in the presence of her husband, at Safford, and robbed Ogletree. Please order the best reward you can. They are prominent white people. Answer quickly.

The Georgia law provides that notification of a crime to be official must come from a judge or a county commissioner, and Governor Candler wired to Judge Bower for official confirmation, so that the reward can be offered.

Governor Candler last night issued a proclamation offering a reward of $500 for the arrest and delivery to the Sheriff of Decatur county of the two negroes.

A special to the Constitution from Bainbridge says: "Neither of the negroes wanted for the Ogletree outrage had been apprehended up to 9 p. m. Friday. Decatur county adjourns Thomas county, Ga., Gadsden county, Fla., and Jackson county, Ala. Every available man in the four counties has joined in the search, and if the negroes are captured the death awarded them will be out of the ordinary. There is sentiment here which has crystallized into an understanding that the blacks will be put to death in the same manner in which Sam Hose met his end at Newnan, Ga., in April last—that they will be mutilated and then burned to death."

John Williams, a negro, was arrested at Thomasville, Ga., yesterday, for an assault on a white woman in Decatur county a month ago. He denied that he was guilty of the crime specified, but admitted that he had to leave the county because of an assault. Williams was taken on a train that evening for Bainbridge. It is feared, that in the excitement attending Thursday night's crimes at Safford, he will be lynched upon his arrival at Bainbridge.

THE D. D. AND B. INSTITUTE.

(Written for the Alexandria Gaz. etc.)

At the June meeting of the board of the State school for the deaf and the blind Captain Mushbach, of the board, and Superintendent Bowles were appointed a committee to secure the services of a gentleman to take the place of Mr. Henry A. Bear, resigned. These gentlemen recommended Prof. Ezra S. Henne, a teacher in the Illinois school, and on Saturday the executive committee of the board confirmed the selection.

The retirement of Professor Bear, which was voluntary and closing as it did a service of between thirty and forty years was looked upon by those close to the old gentleman as meriting a stipend in the way of a pension. The board found that they could do absolutely nothing in this matter. There was no opening for another teacher, and for years it has been plain that the next male appointment should be a hearing man—there being four deaf mutes to one speaking male teacher, without Mr. Bear.

In the election of Mr. Henne they have a young gentleman who is a full graduate of a hearing college and a graduate of the normal department of Gallaudet College for Deaf Mutes in Washington, and one who has had several years experience in the largest institutions for deaf mutes in the world, and one that gives especial attention to articulation and lip reading, which are such important factors in the instruction of those who have lost their hearing since childhood or infancy. Mr. Hume will make a model teacher for the upper classes of the Virginia school and thereby fill a long felt want that has at times bordered on a crying shame. As either a helper or in charge of the articulation department much can be expected of him for the old school's good and for the good of every pupil there. That the Virginia institution is doing splendid work and work that will stand creditably beside the work of most any other deaf mute school in our broad land, is plain to every one who has known a certain little Alexandria deaf and dumb girl, who after one year at the Staunton school, will be found as bright and about as well posted on general matters as the average eight or nine-year-old child.

Persons troubled with diarrhoea will be interested in the experience of Mr. W. M. Rush, clerk of Hotel Dorrance, Providence, R. I. He says: "For several years I have been almost a constant sufferer from diarrhoea, the frequent attacks completely prostrating me and rendering me unfit for my duties at this hotel. About two years ago a traveling salesman kindly gave me a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Much to my surprise and delight its effects were immediate. Whenever I felt symptoms of the disease I would fortify myself against the attack with a few doses of this valuable remedy. The result has been very satisfactory and almost complete relief from the affliction." For sale by all druggists.
